15. Teacher Evaluation

The evaluation of teacher is mandatory because there is very little control over the teacher when she is in the classroom. The evaluation will be done in the last week of the semester without the presence of the teacher so as to maintain impartiality by Quality Enhancement Cell. The evaluation will be shared with the concerned teacher for her improvement/knowledge. Evaluation done by the students will completely be anonymous, i.e., the students will not be required to indicate their names, roll numbers, registration numbers and/or any other student.

16. Unfair Means Cases

The course instructor will report unfair means cases in quizzes and mid semester examinations to the Unfair Means Committee within one week for necessary action as under:

Any candidate detected in giving or receiving assistance, or found guilty of copying from any paper, book or note, or allowing any other candidate to copy his answer book, or using, or attempting to use these or any other unfair means, will be dropped from the program not exceeding two semesters.

UMCs in the final examinations will be handled by the office of the Controller of Examinations, Government College Women University, Sialkot

17. Cancellation of admission

If a student fails to attend any lecture during the first four weeks after the commencement of the semester as per announced schedule, her admission shall stand cancelled automatically without any notification.

18. Fall / Spring Semester

There will be two regular semesters (Fall and Spring) in an academic year. Each semester will be spread over 16-18 weeks (inclusive of exams).

19. Student grievances against any course instructor

GCWU Sialkot has a 3-member Committee headed by a senior faculty member to redress the grievances of the students about any course instructor or grades or for any other issue.

A student must approach the Head of the Institute for a grievance on grade within 5 days of the receipt of the grade. The Head of the University/ Department shall forward the grade grievance to a 3-member committee and it will be mandatory on the Committee for hearing both sides (student and the instructor), and will give a final decision within 5 days or before the start of registration for the new semester whichever comes early. The decision of the Committee will be final.

A Departmental Committee headed by the Chairperson / Senior Faculty Members will be constituted to check randomly a few papers of the final semester examination for uniformity of scoring & covering of the course content.

20. Waiver of Islamic Studies for Non-Muslim Students

Non-Muslim students are exempt from taking Islamic Studies which is a core course for BS (Honors) students. They may select Values and Ethics instead. To register for it, they will be required to fill in Add/Drop form

21. Make-up Examination Policy

Absence from examination is permissible only in extreme situations beyond the control of the student. Serious illness of the student or death in the immediate family is regarded as a legitimate reason for scheduling a make-up exam.

The request for scheduling a make-up exam must be made by the student or someone on her behalf, on the Make-up Exam petition Form which must be submitted to the SSC, along with other required documents, within three working days of missing the exam. Medical Certificate (In case of illness) of private hospital will not be entertained. The SSC will then direct the case to the concerned instructor.

For make-up exams, there will be a default penalty of 20% grade reduction in that component of the grade. Make-up exam (s) can be substituted by an 'average score' in consultation between the instructor and the HOD/Dean.

The make-up exam must be taken within two weeks of the original exam with a maximum extension of up to one month. This will be coordinated by the SSC in consultation with the instructor (s).

The Students involved in extracurricular activities, arranged by societies or other Institutions, need to get prior permission from the HOD/Director in case they would miss a quiz or an exam.

Note:

Private arrangement for make-up examination between a student and a teacher is not allowed.

The Student who misses a Scheduled make-up exam will not be given a second chance.

Make up exam policy implies only on Mid Term Exams, there will be no make-up for Final Term Exams.

22. Change of supervisor

Advance studies and research board is authorized to permit the change of supervisor.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STAFF & FACULTY

The management requires all faculty and staff members to abide by the GCWUS Code of Conduct and maintain the highest standards of work performance and conduct, abide by the established rules and regulations, and to contribute effectively towards accomplishment of GCWUS's goals. This Code of Conduct is binding on all employees throughout the Institute without any exceptions. All employees are required to familiarize themselves with these codes.

Employee Behavior

1.1 Compliance with the Law

Compliance with the local laws in which we operate is an absolute requirement for GCWUS and its employees. Each employee is expected to be familiar with the law as it applies to his/her job, and management shall be responsible for the provision of necessary instruction and advice as appropriate. Although a few employees are legal experts, they are expected to use good judgment and common sense in seeking to comply with all applicable requirements and to ask for advice from management and/or from the Audit or Human Resources function, as appropriate, when uncertain.

Regardless of the sanctions foreseen by the law, any employee guilty of a violation, will be liable to disciplinary consequences because of the violation of his/her employment duties and may entail dismissal from service.

1.2 Responsibility for the Image of GCWUS

To a large extent, the image of GCWUS is determined by our actions and by the way each and every one of us presents and conducts himself/herself. Inappropriate behavior on the part of even a single employee can cause the Institute considerable damage.

Every employee should be concerned with the good reputation of GCWUS in all aspects of performing his/her job.

Every employee must focus on maintaining the good reputation of, and respect for, the Institute.

1.3 Respect for People

Any person who believes that he or she has been discriminated against or personally harassed should report the incident and circumstances to his or her immediate manager or Human Resource manager or other senior manager. They will arrange for the incident to be investigated impartially and confidentially.

GCWUS values the individuality, diversity and creative potential that employees bring to its business and supports the continuous development of their skills and abilities. Judgments about people for the purpose of recruitment, development or promotion should be made on the basis of a person's ability and potential in relation to the needs of the job. Only those elements relevant to the performance of that job should be taken into account. Overall, success and advancement within the group must depend on personal ability and work performance.

GCWUS does not employ individuals under the age of eighteen.

- The management of GCWUS shall actively foster the widespread distribution of the Code of Conduct and see to it that they are implemented permanently.
- Compliance with the law and observance of the Code of Conduct shall be monitored on a regular basis.
- In none of these areas can the Code serve as an exhaustive statement of policy and practice. Reference should be made, where applicable, to the detailed policies, guidelines and rules referred to above. The standards set out in the Code are general and do not address each and every situation which may confront employees at GCWUS. Guidance on the application of the Code to particular situations should, therefore, be sought from management or from the Human Resources, or Audit functions, as appropriate.
